

Army OneSource Community Symposium

Sponsored by the Behavioral Health, Faith, Finance, and Legal Alliances of Army OneSource

All members of the professional community are invited, as well as all Service members, their Families and Veterans. This event is free.

The symposium will feature speakers on Military cultural competence, the behavioral health initiatives to serve the Military community, the role of faith communities in caring for our warriors, general financial advice to support those who have served, and the support that the legal community can provide, especially via Veterans Treatment Courts. This event would be of interest to psychologists, psychiatrists, social workers, priests, rabbis, ministers, imams, financial advisors, accountants, attorneys, judges, probation/parole officers, and members of the media.

Date: Monday, April 17th, 2017

Time: 8:30 a.m. - 4:00 p.m.

Place: Eagles Lodge, 209 West Mission Avenue, Bellevue, NE 68005

Some representative speakers include:

State Senator John McCollister-Update on the Omaha Veterans Treatment Court

Salle Stewart-Owner of The 700 Score Company-It's All in the Numbers, Making Sense of Credit Scores

Chaplain Lieutenant Colonel Phillip Houser, State Chaplain, National Guard

Jim Cada, Managing Partner, Cada Cada Hoffman & Jewson

Jack Hogston, Financial Coach, Consumer Financial Protection Bureau

If you would like to register for this event, please email Greg Marino, Army OneSource State Community Support Coordinator, at: gmarino@afsc.com

If you have questions, please feel free to call Mr. Marino at 314-456-3978.