After nearly 26 years living in the same home here in Omaha, my wife and I are actively looking to relocate from home ownership to an apartment. The biggest challenge is the elimination process—and we have a LOT to eliminate! But I am reminded that our members here at ENVH have had to eliminate/downsize probably multiple times by the time they move into ENVH with just what they can put in a small room. We live in a world that promotes accumulating stuff to the point that sometimes we become too attached to it. Jesus reminded us that life is all about loving God and loving people, not accumulating stuff. So maybe moving and downsizing has a positive benefit if it helps refocus us on what is most important.
