

Veterans Claims Clinic

*Hosted by:
The Veterans Benefit Administration
Lincoln VA Regional Office*

WHO: Discharging Servicemembers, Veterans, their families and survivors

What: Claims clinic - Discharging Servicemembers, Veterans, and their families, and survivors will be able to file disability claims, submit evidence, speak with a claims processor, speak with a Veterans Service Officer from the Nebraska Department of Veterans Affairs, and in some cases have a VA medical exam completed all in one day. Having all the services available in one place can significantly cut down the time it takes to get a disability claim Rating Decision. Typically a Veteran who submits a disability claim during a Claims Clinic will spend about 4 hours from in processing through the medical exam process with a Rating Decision being completed in approximately two weeks. Where as a Veteran who submits a disability claim through the traditional process waits an average of 100 days for a Rating Decision. In addition, to the Lincoln Regional Office representatives the Nebraska Department of Veterans Affairs Veteran Service Officers (VSO) will be available to assist with answering questions and filing claims.
