After living 26 years as homeowners in the Benson neighborhood of Omaha, my wife and I will be moving to an apartment on the south side of Bellevue at the end of May. While anticipating the new home, we are not anticipating all the downsizing and decluttering yet to be done. However, I am reminded that members here at Eastern Nebraska Veterans' Home have had to downsize in a far greater way than we are doing. They are just left with what few things they can put in a small room. Most of us are blessed to live in a time and place where we can accumulate a lot of stuff and often become too attached to it. In the face of downsizing or losing some of our stuff, may we be reminded that our relationships (with God and with other people) really are more important than all the stuff! Jesus reminded us that "life does not consist in the abundance of possessions" (Luke 12:15).
