Volunteers from the VFW Post 10785, first washed the tank - top to bottom. Then, they hand painted the tank with what they referred to as: "O.D.Green" colored paint meaning Over the Dirt Green. With black on the tread.

They've waited three years to complete this project.

It was worth the wait.

Thank you for the upgrade!

We are entering the Thanksgiving season of the year on our calendar. And that's good! We need a national reminder to focus on our blessings. But it needs to also be a DAILY habit. What if, at the end of each day, we audibly expressed two or three specific blessings that we received that day? If we daily expressed these blessings (both to God and to other people), we most likely would become more joyful, more positive, more hopeful and more peaceful. In spite of what may be happening in the world around us or even in our own lives, the daily practice of thanksgiving is ALWAYS a great practice! Join me in making it a personal, daily habit in your life!
