February 2021

Eastern Nebraska Veterans' Home, 12505 S. 40th Street, Bellevue NE 68123 402-595-2180

Greetings from the Recreation Department:

As we move into the month of March, we have an exciting and new activity that we think you will like. It's called "ENVH's Home Mart."

How does this work? Each activity that you attend or we notice you doing on your own, will earn you points. These points will be added up at the end of the month and converted into funny money. Funny money that can only be used at ENVH's Home Mart.

ENVH's Home Mart will be similar to shopping at Walmart. You can shop for clothing, blankets, personal care items, and other interesting items. Prices will be relative but much lower than the cost of items found at Walmart. The Recreation staff will assist any member who wants to participate.

We are looking forward to helping you to get something new at ENVH's Home Mart, opening in April.

Thank you, Recreation Staff

Welcome to the Eastern Nebraska Veterans' Home

Why do seagulls fly over the sea? Because if they flew over a bay, they would be bagels.

Where can you buy chicken broth in bulk? The stock market.

Why do bees have sticky hair? Because they use honeycombs.

How do you stop a bull from charging? Cancel its credit card.

The attorney tells the accused, "I have some good news and some bad news." "What's the bad news?" asks the accused. "The bad news is, your blood is all over the crime scene, and the DNA tests prove you did it." "What's the good news?" "Your cholesterol is 130."

Upon finding a clearly plagiarized paper, I called the student into my office. Pointing to my computer screen, I said, "I found your entire paper online. Do you have anything you want to say about that?" Her angry response: "Well, I paid my sister to write it, but I didn't think she'd plagiarize!"

My three favorite things are eating my family and not using commas.

Once there was a guy named Bill who wanted a horse. On Craigslist, Bill saw a Christian horse so he went to check it out. When Bill got to the ranch, the horse's owner said "It's easy to ride him. Just say 'praise the Lord' to make him go, and 'amen' to make him stop." Bill got on the horse and said "praise the Lord." the horse started to walk. "Praise the Lord, praise the Lord, praise the Lord" and the horse is running. Now Bill sees the cliff and says: "AMEN." The horse stops and Bill says: "Whew! Praise the lord!"

There is one thing that is sadder than a person who is desperately in need of help. That is a needy person who refuses to admit his need or declines to accept help that is clearly available. Have you ever been in that position? Why would we refuse to admit need or refuse available help? Perhaps it could be pride—too proud to ask for help. Maybe it would require me to make some changes in my life that I don't want to make. Jesus gave out an invitation in Matthew 11:28, “Come to me, all you who are weary and burdened, and I will give you rest.” What is preventing you from accepting that offer? Our Creator knows better than anyone how we are made and how we best function. Who else is better equipped to help us?
