

The Eagle

July and August 2021

Eastern Nebraska Veterans' Home, 12505 Harrison Tull Dr., Bellevue NE 68123 402-595-2180

During July 2021 at ENVH:

Bus Rides: There were two bus rides in July. Those that went, said it was fun!

Delivered Lunches: Dairy Queen, Burger King, and Lansky's, popular food, hand delivered to those who ordered.

Live musical entertainment: We enjoyed music by Tim Javorsky, Merrymaker Pam Krygt and Denell Danner. We met them on the Central Outside Patio. Plenty of toe tapping and hand clapping by all who came outside to enjoy the music.

During August 2021 at ENVH:

Bus Rides: We went on three bus rides in August. Once to Halleck Park in Papillion to have a picnic. Another trip was to the Wild Life Safari.

Delivered Lunches: Arby's, Dickey's BBQ and Runza, good eateries, hand delivered to those who ordered.

Live musical entertainment: Christine Coulson, Denell Danner, and Merrymaker Joe Taylor. Again, music happens outside on the Central Outside Patio. Truly an enjoyable time, each and every time we have live music.

July 2021: We had fun handing out handmade quilts, each one was colorful and unique. One to each member of ENVH.

- We tried to capture the awe and joy the members expressed
- What a lovely way to honor our most deserving veterans
- A local ladies guild provided the quilts: The Omaha Quilters Guild. We are truly grateful! We are truly honored!

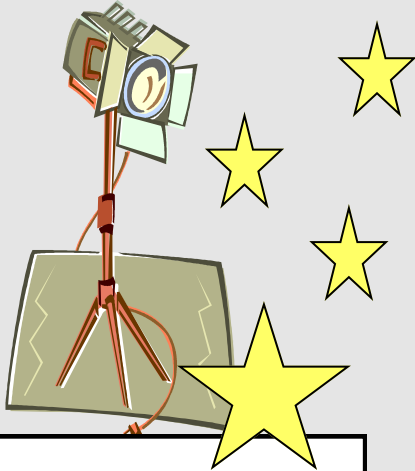

We created an interesting afternoon for the members who came to the Town Square. Not only were homemade quilts handed out, but each member received a gift box filled with edible goodies donated by Cobalt Credit Union.

I work part-time as chaplain here at the veterans' home and part-time as a chaplain with a hospice company here in Omaha. Over the past 16-18 months of the covid-19 crisis, I am thankful for a couple of positive things that I have experienced and observed. First, as I had some more office time when I was limited in places where I could visit patients, I was able to compile some printed resources that I am now using extensively. Secondly, since we have had to meet in neighborhoods instead of the chapel for church services and Bible studies, we have had as many as three times the number of members participating as when in the chapel. As often is the case, God is able to bring good out of difficult situations. May you take time to reflect and see if you can see some blessings that have come in your life over recent months!
