

Dear Veteran Service Organizations,

Congressman Brad Ashford would like to invite members of your organizations to participate in our Veterans Job Summit. This event will be on Monday, November 9th, 2015 at the Scott Conference Center located at 6450 Pine Street, Omaha, Nebraska 68106 from 9:00 am until 4:00 pm.

Nearly 200,000 men and women transition from the military each year; providing these individuals with the resources and tools they need to succeed is a top priority for Congressman Ashford. This free community event is designed to create unique opportunities for veterans to speak with employers that have specific job openings and a willingness to consider veterans for hire. Also, this event aims to assist attending veterans in getting connected with programs and services for which they may be eligible.

Another important component of this event is tailored towards veterans who are interested in starting their own small business. “Boots to Business” is an entrepreneurship training course developed by the Small Business Association that introduces veterans to the fundamentals of business ownership and accessing financing. The program will also introduce participating veterans to a network of business support that is available to them locally.

Please feel free to share this opportunity with individuals you think could benefit. For your convenience, a flyer with event details is attached.

We are excited to host this event and hope to see you there!
